

KEEP THIS NOTICE WITH YOUR INSURANCE PAPERS

WHAT IS THE WISCONSIN INSURANCE PLAN?

In lay person terms, the Plan is a “high-risk” insurer. The Plan insures certain types of properties that have had coverage declined by other insurers.

Premiums are usually MORE EXPENSIVE than other insurance companies.

Coverages are usually MORE LIMITED than other insurance companies.

HOW ARE YOU BILLED?

The balance due – after payment of the deposit sent with the initial application or your first payment for a renewal – will be billed in four installments. These bills are mailed about every 2 months. There is no service charge. The total balance due can be paid at any time. Be sure to enclose the payment stub with your payment and write you’re policy number on your remittance.

We will bill both you and your mortgagee.

4th YEAR NON-RENEWAL

After we have insured you for four years, we will not renew your policy. This is a state requirement. You should shop for insurance coverage. If you do not find coverage, you may reapply to the Plan.

PROBLEMS WITH YOUR INSURANCE?

If you are having problems with your insurance company or your agent, do not hesitate to contact the insurance company or your agent to resolve your problem.
